

Tuesday Junior Winter Training Sessions 2014/15

Junior Member Training Disclaimer and Code of Conduct

For juniors between 'Year 7' (1st year secondary school) and 16 years of age inclusive

Dear Parent/Guardian

East Cornwall Harriers will provide training for juniors throughout the winter months (approx. Beginning of October to end of March) for juniors attending Year 7 and up to and including 16 years of age. Juniors will be trained separately from the adult training group by UK Athletics licenced coaches dedicated to look after the training and safety of the 'juniors only group' at carefully selected training venues around Liskeard.

To enrol your child for this winter's junior training please sign the below 'Junior Member Training Disclaimer' and 'Junior Code of Conduct'.

Junior Member Training Disclaimer:

I accept that the training of my child during the winter months will entail training on the public highway. I further accept that training on the public highway cannot be made free from the risks of injury or accident including those caused by collision with vehicles. I am content that East Cornwall Harriers will take all reasonable means to minimise risk of injury/accident, including the use of risk-assessed training venues only (the venues can be viewed on the club website: eastcornwallharriers.com) and all sessions being supervised by the appropriate number of UK Athletics licensed coaches. I accept that East Cornwall Harriers and its coaches, officials and members shall not be held responsible for any injuries, loss or damage sustained by my child howsoever caused during the training sessions or participation in any competitive events.
